CONCEPT OF POSITION

Under the supervision of the Staff Services Manager I (SSM I), the Associate Governmental Program Analyst (AGPA) will work in the Quality Assurance Program Integrity and Training Unit performing the more complex activities of the Adult Programs Division, Operations and Quality Assurance Bureau. The Unit's primary functions include working with the contractor for the In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) training, including all phases of contract procurement and monitoring training sessions as needed. Other activities include working with the Department of Health Care Services (DHCS) on IHSS fraud/program integrity issues as needed such as conducting unannounced home visits to IHSS recipients to protect program integrity and responding to a variety of questions from counties regarding fraud issues. Duties also include maintaining statistical data regarding county and state fraud findings and writing summary reports of the data, development of regulations and policies/procedures and preparing All-County Letters/Information Notices (ACLs/ACINs), Memorandums, etc.

A. RESPONSIBILITIES OF POSITION

- 20% Performs duties related to statewide IHSS Training and reviews course materials prepared by the contractor to ensure consistency with regulations and policy. Also attends curriculum development meetings, training pilots, and training sessions as needed.
- 20% Act as liaison with counties and DHCS on fraud-related measures.
- 20% Identifying program fraud issues and responding to the more complex written and telephone inquiries from county staff, advocates, and the public regarding fraud issues.
- 15% Conduct unannounced home visits to IHSS recipients.
- 15% Travel related to duties listed above.
- 5% Preparing ACLs/ACINs, etc.
- 5% Other related duties, as defined by the Unit Supervisor.

B. SUPERVISION RECEIVED

The AGPA is directly supervised by the Unit Supervisor (SSM I), but may receive some assignments and direction from a lead analyst on some projects.

C. SUPERVISION EXERCISED

The AGPA is a journey-level position and may be required to act in a lead capacity on special projects and/or for the Unit Supervisor in his/her absence.

D. ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITY

None.

E. PERSONAL CONTACTS

The AGPA will have frequent contact with the contractors, county social services staff, other departmental personnel, advocates, the general public, and other state agencies.

F. ACTION AND CONSEQUENCES

Failure to use good judgment in handling assignments and imparting information could result in misspent program dollars or litigation against the department, as well as a negative impact on the success of the QA Initiative.

G. OTHER INFORMATION

The AGPA must have the ability to establish effective working relationships; possess excellent written and verbal communication skills; possess an understanding of basic statistical concepts and terminology; have strong MS Excel skills; ability to work cooperatively and effectively independently and as part of a team; work under pressure and complete assignments in a timely manner.
